

Scotiabank Donates $50,000 to Local Disaster Relief

Providenciales, Turks & Caicos (March 22, 2018) - Scotiabank is pleased to announce that The Turks & Caicos Island Red Cross, Food For Thought TCI, and the Special Needs Association of Providenciales (SNAP) have been selected as organizations to receive a donation to assist with hurricane relief efforts. The organizations collectively received donations totaling $50,000.

“Scotiabank commends these three organizations on their continued work in the community, especially for the hurricane relief efforts,” commented Patricia Adams, Business Support Senior Manager, Scotiabank Turks & Caicos Ltd. “We are certain the donations will positively impact their initiatives and the greater community as a whole.”

The Turks & Caicos Islands Red Cross received a donation of $30,000 from Scotiabank. Food For Thought TCI and SNAP each received donations of $10,000 respectively. Scotiabank is committed to the rebuilding of Turks & Caicos and other impacted countries in the aftermath of the 2017 hurricanes Irma & Maria. In connection with this, Scotiabank has made donations totaling US$500,000 to various organizations throughout the affected region.
